

IELTS Teaching Certificate

Who is it suitable for?

This course is for anyone wanting to upgrade their ESL teaching skills, increasing employability and earning potential exponentially both in Australia and overseas, as millions of ESL students worldwide undertake the IELTS as evidence of English language proficiency yearly (over 2.5 million tests were taken globally, last year alone) to communicate in English for education, immigration and professional accreditation.

Our IELTS teaching course has been developed through extensive research, teaching experience, feedback from IELTS students and professionals. It covers not only the four testing skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing, but also covers test knowledge with extensive training on how to administer mock tests and calculate approximate band scores. This scoring knowledge will enable you to analyse your ESL students abilities accurately according to IELTS band criteria and then, provide them with detailed feedback to develop lessons and study plans so they can achieve the band score that they require, making you a highly sought after teaching professional.
