Speaking—LET'S CHAT.

Practice the dialogue with a partner.

Tien: Have you ever heard of the 16 personalities test?

Tien: Yes! It's so interesting! It's not just about those two aspects, it also shows you what your strengths are.

My result was ISTP, so I'm introverted but my strengths are sensing, thinking and perceiving.

Tien: You're lucky too, ESFJ are the most likely people be psychopaths.

Discuss what the words in purple mean.

Lewis: Is that the test where everyone in the world becomes 1 out of 16 personalities? I thought most people were either Introvert or Extrovert!

Lewis: Let's see! So my personality is ENFJ, Extroversion, Intuition, Feeling and Judging. We're completely opposite!

Lewis: You don't really believe all this stuff, do you?

Listening: Who are you?

Listen to a woman get the results of her personality test and answer the questions.

Play Audio File:
Psychology1.mp3

- What is the woman's personality type?
- What does that mean?
- Does she think this personality type is true for her?

Let's play a game!

In small teams, use famous people to play GUESS WHO.

One person must choose a name out of a hat and ask questions to guess who they are. They can ask 10 YES/NO questions and the team can answer for them until they guess who they are.

Example Question:

Am I crazy?
Am I very famous?

Let's check grammar!

Did you know that people listen to you much more if you use Question tags at the end of your sentences?

Add the question tags to the sentences on the right. Negative sentences have positive tags and vice versa.

Ex; You aren't hungry, are you?

1. You want to go to Paris, don't you?
2. I look pretty, _____
3. You shouldn't have gone to the party, _____
4. I should get a dog, _____
5. You won't leave me, _____
6. I can't go that way, _____
7. You don't like my dress, _____

Speaking: Q & A

Work with a partner. Q & A: Ask your partner 10 questions, and then try to guess their personality type. Look at the chart from before to try and think of good question that might give you some clues. Make it difficult for your partner and give good, long answers but don't lie.

Person A: Do you prefer to be with people or alone?

Person B: I prefer to work alone, but I like being with friends.

Reading and Writing

Read the story and answer the questions.

Famous psychopath and serial killer, Ted Bundy, killed 36 women in the United States between 1974 and 1978. Today, it has been decided that his personality type was ENTJ. The ENTJ personality type is associated with people who like to be in control, therefore it often applies to killers but also with many politicians and famous leaders. People such as Richard Nixon and Bill gates both have ENTJ personality types. ENTJ people are usually very logical and honest, but can be brutal and straightforward when they don't understand that other people may be more sensitive than them. The 16 personalities test has given us a great way to understand people better, however it is still unlikely that 9 billion people can be separated into 16 different personalities.

- Why does the author talk about Ted Bundy?

- What do ENTJ people have in common?

- What does the writer think about the 16 personalities test?
